

RISING STARS AWARD PROGRAMME

Are you one of the brightest and best in the bid / proposal profession?

Here at Strategic Proposals, we're marking our 30th anniversary in 2017. As part of our celebrations, our Rising Stars award programme is designed to recognise outstanding individuals who are still near the start of their career in bid and proposal management.

IF YOU'RE UNDER 30* - SO YOUNGER THAN OUR COMPANY! - AND BASED IN THE UK, WE'D LIKE TO INVITE YOU TO APPLY.

Those selected for the programme will be offered a bundle of free training and development activities during the year, including:

- ★ Two courses on best practice - one in London on 5th April, followed by a second event at a historic inn in Stratford-upon-Avon on 12th and 13th September (including a group dinner).
- ★ A chance to participate in project work with your fellow programme members.
- ★ 1:1 coaching from a senior Strategic Proposals team member on a sample of your proposal output.

TO APPLY

... you and your manager need to write a short email, outlining your experience to date in the bid/proposal profession - and why you'd like to be considered for the programme.

Applications should be made by email to Jon Williams, UK Managing Director of Strategic Proposals, via jw@strategicproposals.com If you'd like more details, please feel free to email Jon, or call on 0781 333 2294.

Applications close on 17th February, and we'll let you know by 24th February whether you've been selected. There are a maximum of 20 places on the programme. You must be available for the April and September dates if you want to be considered. And we'll cover all the costs of the events, but would assume you'll cover any travel and accommodation costs you might incur.

* We do appreciate that some people start their careers later, or take breaks. If you don't quite meet the 30 cut-off but would still like to be considered, we obviously wouldn't rule you out!
